

Civic Orchestra of Tucson

Music is a universal language.

It crosses all borders and brings harmony to the world.

“Music is important. It says things your heart can't say any other way, and in a language everyone speaks.” – Dan Rather, CBS News

The Civic Orchestra of Tucson (COT) brings the gift of music to Tucson area residents. Founded in 1975, our 60-piece volunteer orchestra is Tucson's oldest community orchestra. We are one of the very few musical organizations in the area that presents free symphonic concerts.

Communities come alive with arts and culture. Residents enjoy a higher quality of life and communities gain social and economic benefits.

*“Leaders who care about community and economic development can feel good about choosing to invest in the arts.”
– Robert L. Lynch, President and CEO, Americans for the Arts*

Our free classical music concerts bring together people of all ages, backgrounds, and economic levels. We perform throughout the area in facilities that are accessible to the elderly and physically challenged.

Your support will allow COT to continue to present concerts for free.

Your support will enrich the cultural life of the greater Tucson area. We perform in Tucson, Green Valley, Sahuarita, Vail, and Oro Valley.

Your support will safeguard our commitment to educational programs.

- At our holiday concert, young music students perform with COT.
- Our annual Young Artists' Competition encourages aspiring young musicians to improve their performance skills; its winners perform their solos with the orchestra.
- Our Musical Instrument Petting Zoos allow children of all ages to try different orchestral instruments, inspiring them to take lessons.

Your support will let the community know that you care about the arts.

Your support is an investment in the future of the Civic Orchestra of Tucson.

The COT is a member of the League of American Orchestras, the Southern Arizona Arts & Cultural Alliance, and the Green Valley/Sahuarita Chamber of Commerce.
