FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Free Orchestra Concert in Sahuarita Offers Musical Travelogue”

The Civic Orchestra of Tucson (COT) starts its 41st season with a free concert in Sahuarita, AZ, titled “Urban Landscapes.” Travel with the COT to great cities of the world that have inspired great music. The concert will take place on Sunday, October 2, 2016, at 3:00 pm at the Sahuarita District Auditorium, 22 W Sahuarita Rd, in Sahuarita.

On the program are Mozart’s Prague Symphony No. 38, a Viennese waltz by Johann Strauss, Gershwin’s “An American in Paris,” and “A Salute to the Big Apple,” a set of toe-tapping tunes about NYC arranged by Calvin Custer.

The program will also include Piano Concerto No. 2, Mvt. 1, by Camille Saint-Saëns, featuring 17-year-old Evan Willmarth, a winner of the orchestra’s 2016 Young Artists’ Competition.

Before the concert, starting at 2:15 pm, stop by the Musical Instrument Petting Zoo to try playing an orchestral instrument.

Join Music Director Dr. Herschel Kreloff for a pre-concert talk at the Joyner-Green Valley library on Monday, September 26 at 2:00 pm.

For more information about these free events, visit www.cotmusic.org or call 520-730-3371.
